I only know Jameson Tolliver from taking a few computer classes in same class in high school around 2002-2003. We had no relationship. Out of nowhere in late 2013 he reached out to my sister through Facebook trying to get a hold of me. She provided my email address & he immediately started emailing me saying I'm the love of his life & soulmate. He called the hospital at the time I worked as a nurse looking for me. He took my pictures off Facebook and put on his claiming I'm his wife. I filed a protection order which was granted. He violated it almost immediately and continued emailing me. I reported it to the police who said a warrant goes out but he's not arrested. He showed up at my apartment in the middle of the night trying to break in. He was then arrested. He was found incompetent to stand trial and sent to a mental health facility & the charges were dismissed due to this. I did not hear from him after this.

all of a sudden my he started calling my phone and leaving messages, texts, emails, Facebook posts doing the same thing saying I'm his wife and soulmate and trying to find me. He took photos of my husband's Facebook and is using them on his & created a website he said.

He's saying all sorts of things like he heard I have STDs but he does too & I need to come over alone so we can save the world. He's contacted my sister with emails as well. He found my current address on the internet & yesterday 5/6/26 he said he was coming over. My mom came over and we locked up my apartment and watched. I also currently have a baby at home & am fearing for our lives. He showed up around 9pm that night 5/6/26 knocking & ringing my doorbell & trying to get in the door & windows. I called the police who came & told him to leave and not contact me. He has continued to call me today 5/7/26 and I'm having to sleep on the floor with weapons to try to protect my home and baby. This has affected my work and safety & health.
