The terms of this Order shall be effective until 5 / 7 / 31 (DATE CERTAIN – 5 YEARS MAXIMUM)

WARNING TO RESPONDENT: See the warning page attached to the front of this Order.

This proceeding came on for a hearing on 5 / 20 / 26 before the Court and the ☒ Civil Stalking Protection Order Ex Parte or ☐ Civil Sexually Oriented Offense Protection Order Ex Parte issued on 5 / 7 / 26, all in accordance with R.C. 2903.214. The following individuals were present:

Petitioner was present pro se. Respondent did not appear despite service and did not contact the Court in any fashion.

The Court hereby makes the following findings of fact:

The Court finds that Petitioner has met her burden under the applicable statute. The evidence establishes that the parties knew each other casually during high school in approximately 2003. The parties appear to have lost touch (only because they made no particular effort to do otherwise) after they completed school. In 2013, Respondent sought Petitioner's contact information and obtained her email address. He then began emailing Petitioner, professing his love for her and expressing a desire to have a family with Petitioner. Similar messages continued for a time. In November of 2013, Petitioner instructed Respondent to have no further contact with her. He threatened suicide and was involuntarily committed to a mental health care facility. Further email communication from Respondent followed in March of 2014. Some significant period of time passed. Then, in April of 2026, Respondent again began contacting Petitioner in various ways. He posted photographs of her on his social media pages. He also called, emailed, and texted her. In total, during this period of time, Respondent has contacted Petitioner some fifty (50) times in various ways. This has caused Petitioner great concern. She is a nurse who works from home, and she is married with a daughter who is not yet two (2) years old. Most startlingly, Respondent appeared at Petitioner's home on or about May 7, 2026, at which time he was arrested for and charged with menacing by stalking and telephone harassment. Petitioner is now taking anxiety medication as a result of Respondent's behavior. Clearly, Respondent has engaged in a pattern of behavior and has knowingly caused great concern and fear for Petitioner.

☐ Additional findings on a separate page are included and attached herein.

- ☒ The Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that 1) Respondent has knowingly engaged in a pattern of conduct that caused Petitioner to believe that Respondent will cause physical harm or cause or has caused mental distress; and 2) the following orders are equitable, fair, and necessary to protect the persons named in this Order from stalking offenses.
- ☐ The Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that 1) Petitioner or Petitioner's family or household members have been a victim of a sexually oriented offense as defined in R.C. 2950.01, committed by Respondent; and 2) the following orders are equitable, fair, and necessary to protect the persons named in this Order from sexually oriented offenses.
- ☒ The Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that 1) Petitioner or Petitioner's family or household members reasonably believed Respondent's conduct before the filing of the Petition endangered the health, welfare, or safety of Petitioner or Petitioner's family or household members; 2) Respondent presents a continuing danger to Petitioner or Petitioner's family or household members; and 3) the following orders are equitable, fair, and necessary to protect the persons named in this Order from experiencing a continuing danger.

RESPONDENT SHALL NOT ABUSE, harm, attempt to harm, threaten, follow, stalk, harass, force sexual relations upon, or commit sexually oriented offenses against the protected persons named in this Order.

NOTICE TO PARTIES

Objections. (1) A party may file written objections to the Court's adoption, modification, or rejection of the Magistrate's denial or granting of a Civil Protection Order after a full hearing, or any terms of such an order, within fourteen days of the Court's filing of the Civil Protection Order. If any party timely files objections, any other party may also file objections not later than ten days after the first objections are filed.

(2) The timely filing of objections under Civil Rule 65.1 (F)(3)(d) shall not stay the execution of the Civil Protection Order.

(3) A party filing objections under Civil Rule 65.1 (F)(3)(d) has the burden of showing that an error of law or other defect is evident on the face of the civil protection order, or that the credible evidence of record is insufficient to support the granting or denial of the civil protection order, or that the Magistrate abused the Magistrate's discretion in including or failing to include specific terms in the civil protection order.

(4) Objections based upon evidence of record shall be supported by a transcript of all the evidence submitted to the Magistrate or an affidavit of that evidence if a transcript is not available. With leave of Court, alternative technology or manner of reviewing the relevant evidence may be considered. The objecting party shall file the transcript or affidavit with the Court within thirty days after filing objections unless the Court extends the time in writing for preparation of the transcript or other good cause. If a party files timely objections prior to the date on which a transcript is prepared, the party may seek leave of Court to supplement the objections.

Final order; stay of appeal. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, a Civil Protection Order entered by the Court under Civil Rule 65.1 (F)(3)(c), with or without the subsequent filing of objections, is a final, appealable order that can be appealed upon issuance of the civil protection order. The timely filing of objections under Civil Rule 65.1 (F)(3)(d) shall stay the running of the time for appeal until the filing of the Court's ruling on the objections.

Disposition of Confiscated Weapons. Within thirty days of the expiration or dismissal of this Civil Protection Order, a party may make a written request for the return of confiscated weapons, provided that no other law prohibits the return. AFTER THIRTY DAYS, IF NO WRITTEN REQUEST IS RECEIVED, OR THE RETURN IS PROHIBITED BY LAW, THE LICKING COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHALL DISPOSE OF THE WEAPONS PURSUANT TO PROCEDURES ESTABLISHED FOR THE DISPOSITION OF ABANDONED PROPERTY.
